INTENSITY OF THE LAND

Graciano is among the Iberian Peninsula's most unique, perfumed red varieties. Under-valued until recently due to its low yield, today it again fills the country's great mountain ranges of the north. Exuberance, acidity and colour. Some unique characteristics which we want to perpetuate across the Maset Ibericus collection: the winery's commitment to biodiversity and the conservation of native varieties.

Intense ruby red in colour with vibrant violet reflections. On the nose, aromas of black fruit (picota cherry and cranberries) and spices (black pepper) stand out on a light background of tobacco leaves and toffee caramel. Hints of violet, liquorice and eucalyptus. On the palate, it is intense, sweet and fresh, with ripe tannins and a slightly fruity finish.
