THE MOST TRADITIONAL RIOJA

Among tempranillo vineyards to the southeast of Medrano (Rioja Alta), runs the Sendero de los Arrieros, an old path used by mule drivers to transport goods on pack mules. In remembrance, we created this excellent complex and fruity white wine; our humble homage to its memory and legacy.

Alc.: 14 % vol.

Serving: 14 - 16 °C

Consume: best before 2026

Pairing: Charcoal grilled ox chop with piquillo peppers

Ruby-coloured with soft claret reflections. Intense aromas of red and black fruit (plum and strawberry), spices (black pepper) and dill on a fragrant balsamic background (eucalyptus). Sweet reminiscent of toffee caramel. On the palate, it is soft and fruity, with a long, persistent aftertaste.
